STATINTL

This Agency wishes to express its appreciation of the excellent work done by [REDACTED] of your unit, while they were on temporary duty with us.

STATINTL

[REDACTED] familiarity with basic source materials, as well as his first-hand knowledge of Vietnam itself were of extremely great assistance in the establishment of a much-needed data base. [REDACTED] demonstrated a strong capability for analysis of fragmentary and often contradictory data and is to be commended for his ability to summarize his conclusions within the limited time available for this project. Both men displayed a high degree of motivation, and their unflagging energy while working under pressure contributed materially to the successful completion of a high priority report on Vietnam.
